

Hannah Sommers

Managing Partner, Nebraska Legal Group | AAML Fellow | Family Law Attorney

Hannah Sommers is a leading family law attorney and managing partner at Nebraska Legal Group, where she represents clients in complex divorce, custody, and high-asset property cases. A Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers and a Super Lawyers honoree since 2017, Hannah is widely recognized for her strategic mindset, clear communication, and calm under pressure.

With a background in broadcast journalism and more than a decade of legal experience, Hannah brings a rare blend of poise, empathy, and precision to her work.

She is a certified collaborative divorce attorney, a trained mediator, and a frequent speaker on topics ranging from negotiation to legal ethics. In addition to her practice, she serves on the Board of Directors for Legal Aid of Nebraska and holds leadership roles within the Nebraska State Bar Association.

Hannah is passionate about empowering clients through education and advocating for practical, forward-thinking solutions in emotionally charged situations.

Speaker Topics

- The Future of Family Law: Balancing Litigation and Collaboration

Insights on how collaborative divorce and mediation are shaping modern family law practices.

- High-Conflict Cases, Calm Strategies

Techniques for navigating complex custody disputes and emotionally charged divorces with clarity and confidence.

- Leading With Empathy in the Legal Profession

How attorneys can combine compassion with strategic advocacy to achieve better outcomes for clients.

- Valuing What's Hard to Measure: Business Interests and Complex Assets in Divorce

A practical approach to identifying, valuing, and dividing high-value assets during marital dissolution.

- Communication Under Pressure: Lessons From the Courtroom and Beyond

How clear communication, even in high-stakes settings, transforms negotiation and advocacy.

- Building Trust With Clients in Times of Crisis

Strategies for lawyers to create strong attorney-client relationships during life's most difficult transitions.

- From Newsroom to Courtroom: Lessons in Clarity, Story, and Credibility

Hannah's path from broadcast journalism to family law. How story structure and on air discipline translate into better advocacy.

Audiences Served

Bar associations, family law sections, judicial conferences, mediation groups, collaborative law professionals, legal support staff programs, financial planners and CPAs working with divorcing clients, mental health professionals in family systems work, community education events.

Interested in having Hannah speak to your group, conference, or legal organization? Please email: speaker@hannahsommers.online to request dates, format, and CLE materials.

